Notre Dame High School

Notre Dame High School was founded in 1951 as the first Catholic secondary school in the Genesee region. Today, Notre Dame is a Catholic high school of 204 students, grades 7 – 12. 86% of professional staff has a Master’s Degree. Students from Batavia and surrounding communities in Genesee, Orleans, Erie, Livingston, Monroe and Wyoming counties comprise a student body that is 60% Catholic.

Community

Surrounded by rural communities, Batavia is a small city in Genesee County, in the Finger Lakes Region of Western New York State. It is also home to Genesee Community College, giving Notre Dame’s students the opportunity to take college level courses while in high school as well as to attend college while living at home.
